ST. DAVID'S FOUNDATION NAMES NEW DIRECTOR OF HUMAN RESOURCES

AUSTIN – St. David's Foundation announced today that business and community leader Joy Legan has joined the Foundation as director of human resources.

"I am pleased to join St. David's Foundation and look forward to being a part of the Foundation's work to serve the people of Central Texas," said Legan. "I have long admired the organization's role as a community leader in bringing reliable and affordable health care to our community."

Having previously worked for The University of Texas at Austin, Seton Healthcare, United Way Capital Area, and Farm Credit Bank, Legan brings extensive experience in health care, higher education, finance, and non-profit management to the Foundation.

"Joy Legan is a committed community advocate who has served in leadership roles for numerous organizations in the Austin community throughout her career," said Foundation CEO Earl Maxwell. "We are delighted that she will bring her experience and passion for service to the St. David's Foundation."

Legan is a sustaining member of the Junior League of Austin and serves on the Board of Directors for the Junior Austin Women's Club. Her community involvement has included the Women's Symphony League, National Charity League, Zeta Tau Alpha Alumnae Board of Directors, Hyde Park Child Development Center Board of Directors, as well as several community advisory boards.

*The vision of St. David's Foundation is to keep the promise of a better life by improving health and health care for all Central Texans. The Foundation's mission is to work with commitment, integrity, and respect to achieve our vision in our hospitals, programs, and community partnerships. The 2009 budget for the Foundation is $21 million, which includes grants to mental health agencies, agencies serving the elderly, ill and homeless, and many of the area's private safety net clinics, and the St. David's Dental Program.
